

HOME ECONOMICS

INTEGRATION OF APPROACHES IN HOME ECONOMICS

CLASS SCHEDULE for High School Example only

| Week/ Date | Day | Pages | Topic | Approach | Integration |
|---------------|-----|-------|---------------|--------------|--|
| | 2 | | | content | discuss the issue of Vegetarianism and where you get all necessary nutrients |
| | 3 | | | contributors | introduce Christians who are vegetarian and their emphasis |
| | 4 | | | atmosphere | invite a healthy guest to discuss his vegetarian eating habits |
| 6 | 1 | 31-33 | Meal Planning | links | link to diet and the need for physical nourishment in order to be healthy and ready to worship God |
| | 2 | | | content | omvnote a giest Mitrotopmosj wjp can help the students prepare a vetarian menu for one week |
| | 3 | | | links | link to taking responsibility for our choices of good food over junk foods |
| 7 | 1 | 34-38 | Meal Seriving | mission | allow students to plan and serve a heaty lunch to a less fortunate member of the community |
| | 2 | | | content | take students to a vegetarian restaurant, if possible, to show different moves of serving food |
| | 3 | | | mission | let students assist in the school canteen to model the proper way of serving foods and the selling of only healthy foods |
| 8 | 1 | 39-44 | Sewing | REBIRTH | link to Church Unity. Pieces of cloth sewn together make one garment. Different people bring different talents togehter to make one church functional |
| | 2 | | | links | link to Forgiveness. We tend to get impatient with crooked stitches, but God forgives us in our crooked ways. |
| 9 | 1 | 45-49 | Sewing | atmosphere | invite a guest Tailor who has used his talent of sewing for the poor |
| | 2 | | | contributors | talk about Dorcas who was given another life because she cared for the poor and sewed clothes for them. |
| 10 | 1 | 50-52 | Sewing | mission | let students make a simple article that they can give as a gift, so their parents can economize |
| | 2 | | | links | link to foresight and planning. We have to plan for size, color, and quality of cloth to make a serviceable garment. God had foresight to make a plan for our salvation. |